TIME DROPPED A MARKER

December 1957

Our biennial event—College Night

All were there—sure things,

Hopefuls, wishfuls, possibles

And then it snowed . . .

And the temperature fell to 17°F

And the subway motormen struck

(for union recognition, they said)

It disrupted the city—and our

Schedules somewhat—more the snow

Than the transit. . . and with F.H. ingenuity

Classes as usual, earlier dismissals,

Time for study? Xmas here soon

For us, the mid-year

Grads to be, in a few short weeks

No thought of satellites

No concern for snow . . .

Just the immediate future

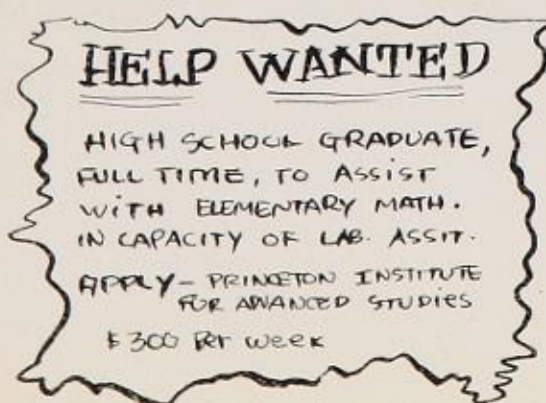

January 29

New Year, '58—We left you

106 of us—Some for college

For jobs? For marriage? For service?

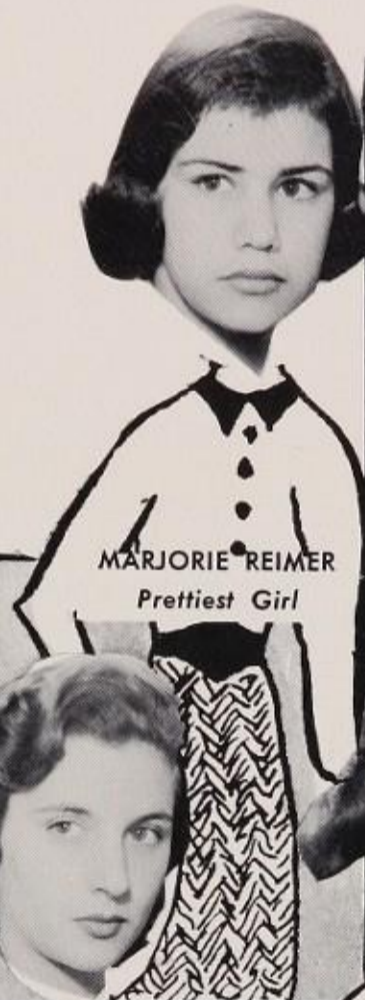

Forever? Bye . . .

INTERMEZZO

This is our picture as we were,
Of struggles, all not in vain.

Four years;
Years of happiness and joy.
A few tears,
A dream, a love, a hope.
A slow climb up the ladder,
Every year another rung.
Another step towards a goal,
Another left behind.

An intermezzo
Neither child nor adult.
Always forward, ever upward.
A dream ahead,
A day, a week, a month slips by . . .

In Retrospect
Impressions;
Wonder, bewilderment, fright.
A strange adventure just begun
The end not yet in sight.

A Freshmen:
Young, unwanted, of the minority.
Crowds of students all about us.
Clad in the costume of the day.
How strange you were to us
You who were so tall and stately.
You remain in our thoughts more than you might suppose.
A year slips by . . .

Now of the multitude.
Over a thousand strong.
Our thoughts race on . . .
Revelations continue, dreams remain . . .
And a year slips by . . .
Never quite belonging
O I could write many a poem to you.
You who knew not what you were,
You whose eyes remained closed,
Who continued in the accustomed routine,
Rejected by the rest, but still dreaming.
And suddenly it was spring,
Fancies of love were naught but fancies.

Regents . . .

They were to us the epitome of evil,
The apex of sin,
The zenith of fear.
A struggle, a harsh reality,
A passing grade.
And still another year slips by . . .

The Junior year:

An earnest endeavor to better ourselves.
A study of literature, science, and language.
An ambition,
Whatever it was then?
But how quickly it passes on.
How swiftly the days are consumed
And night is but a shadow of the day.

Another summer,
A dance, a song, a laugh.
A summer morning,
The dried grass of the harvest season.
A return,
A joyful reunion with friend and foe,
And still another year . . .

The glorious fulfillment of a vague dream.
The unbearable reality of disappointment.
All is not as originally imagined.
A hectic rush, a clash of desires,

The confusion of indecision.
This is the Senior year.
Existing in the present,
Living for the future.
College, business, marriage.
An intermezzo almost passed.
As we look back there is much we remember . . .

We recall the teachers, the exams, the work.
We recall the dances, the games, the fun.
We recall the friends we made and lost,
And those we shall never see again.

Others shall enter these portals of learning,
Others shall live just as we have.
Fifty years hence they will still come.
They will see as we have seen
Hear as we have heard,
And enjoy as we have done.
They too shall pass through this first of intermezzos.

Judy Berg

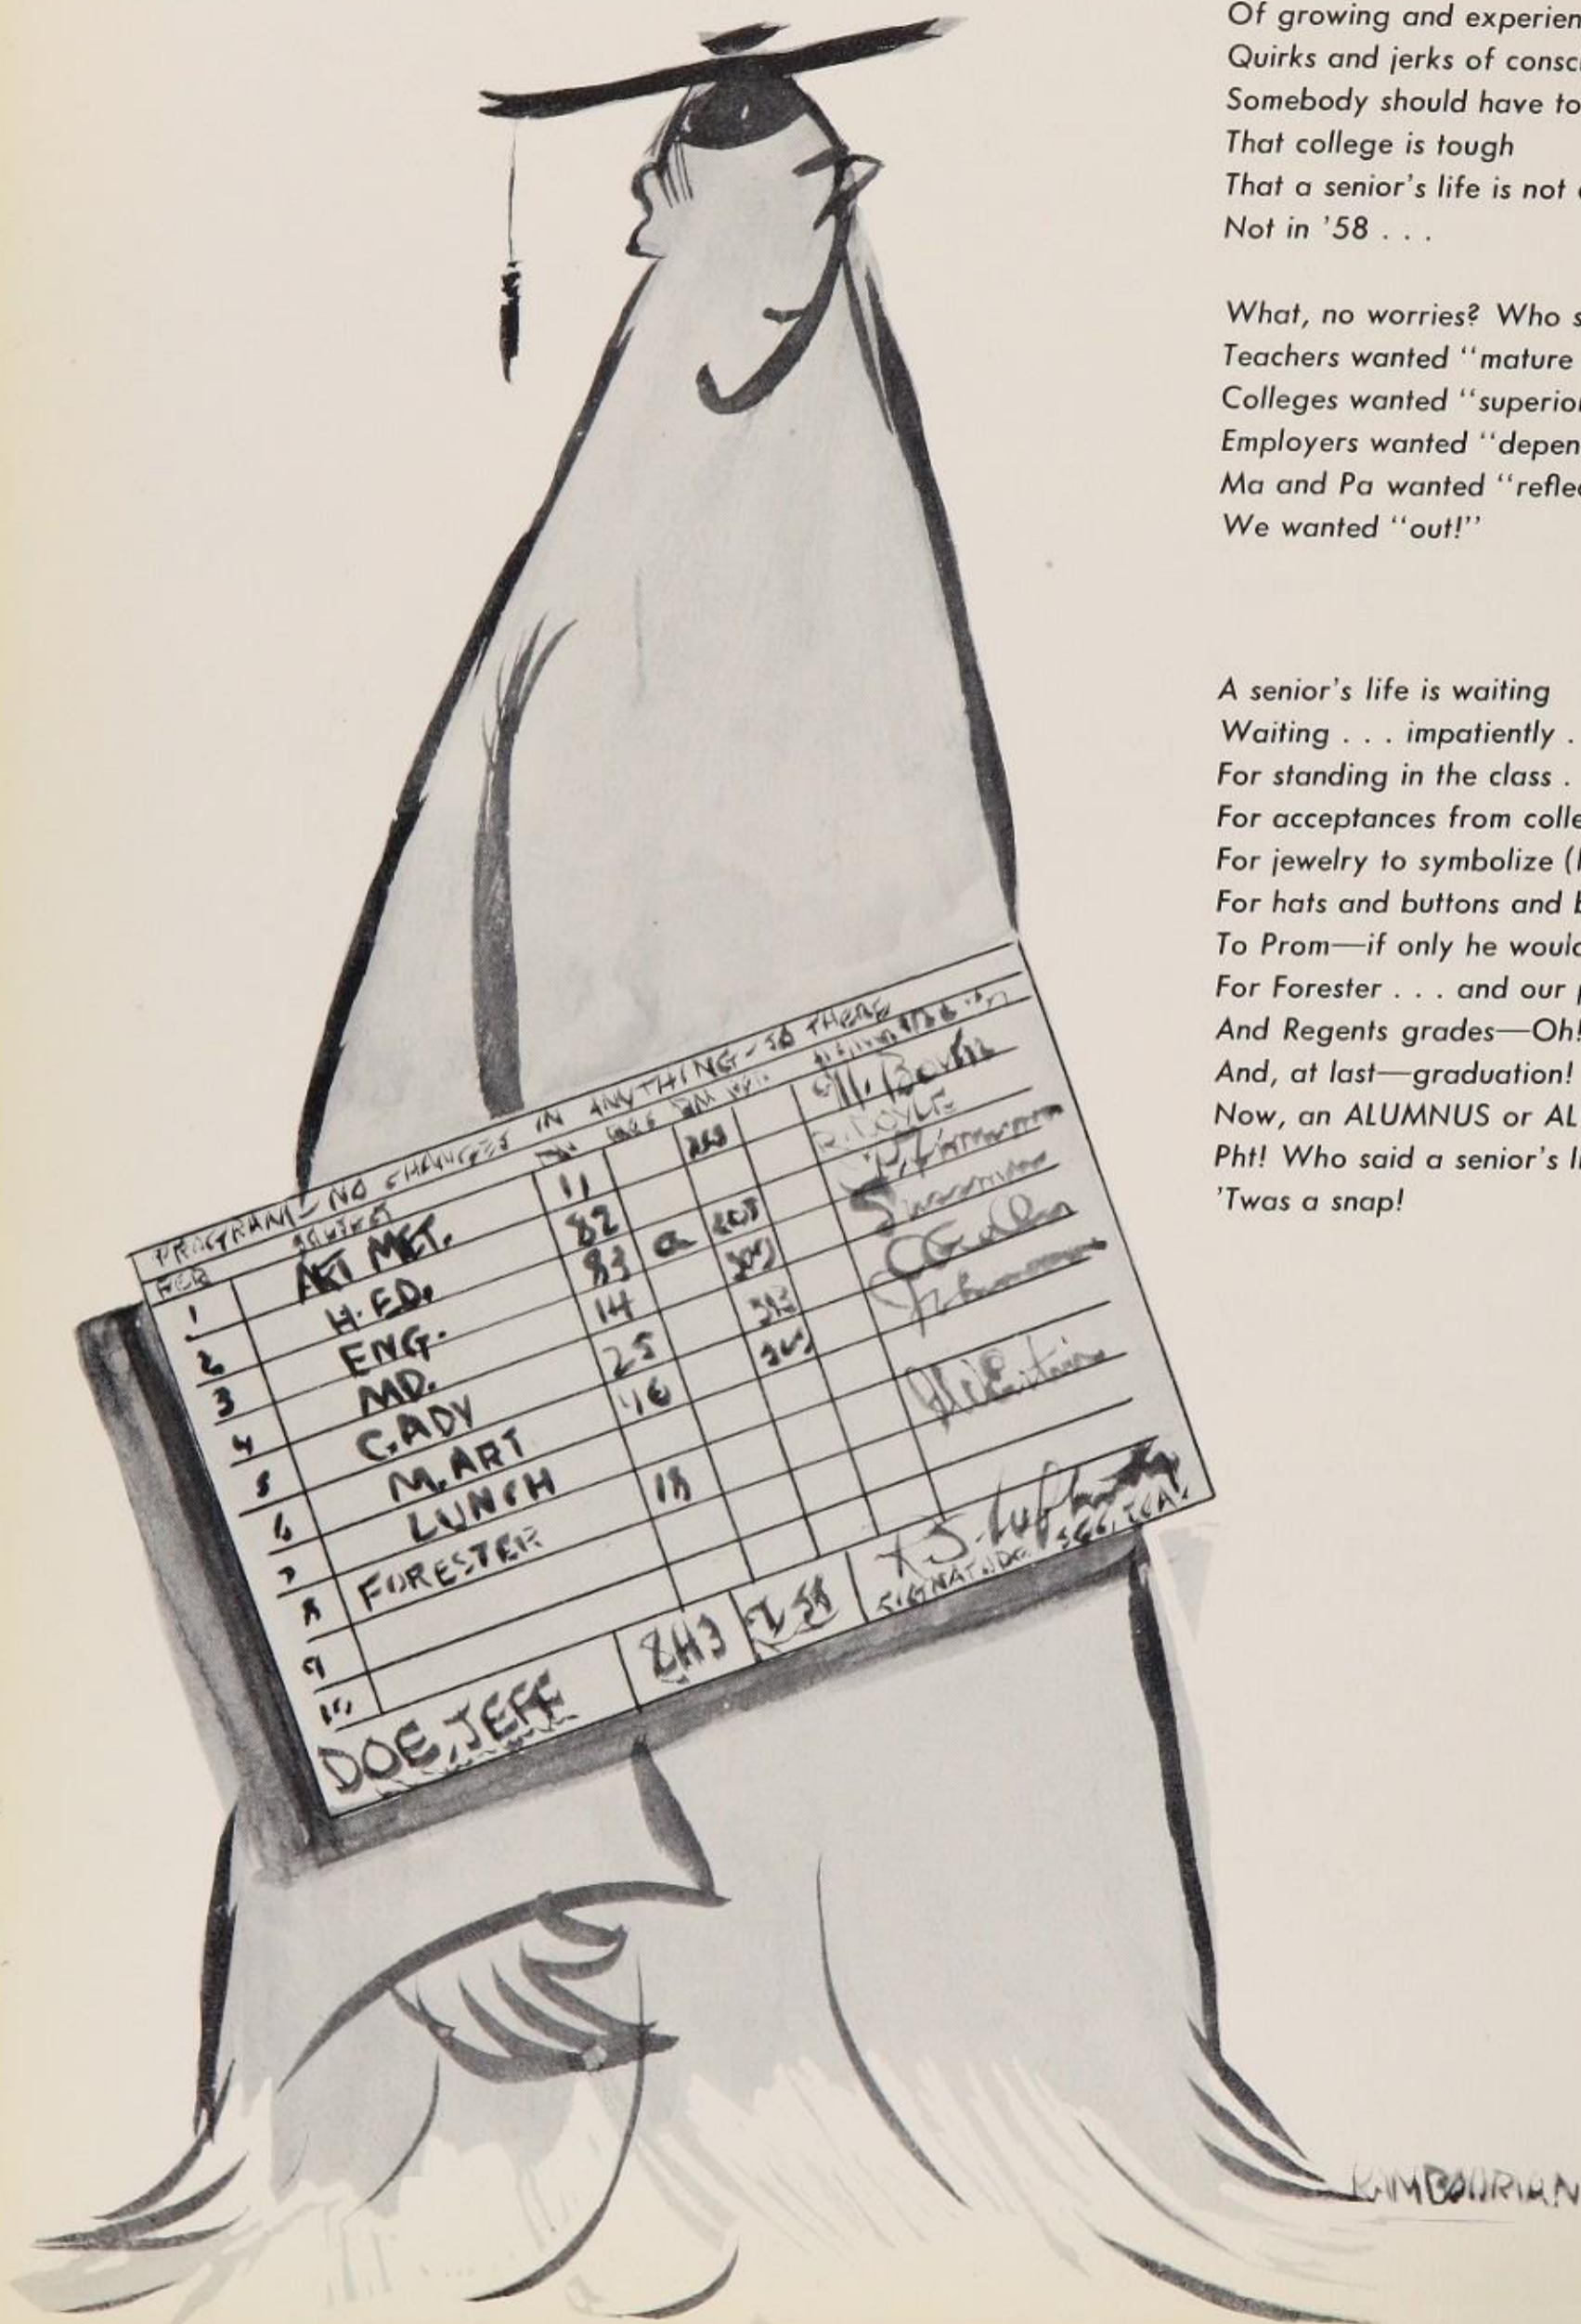

WHO SAID?

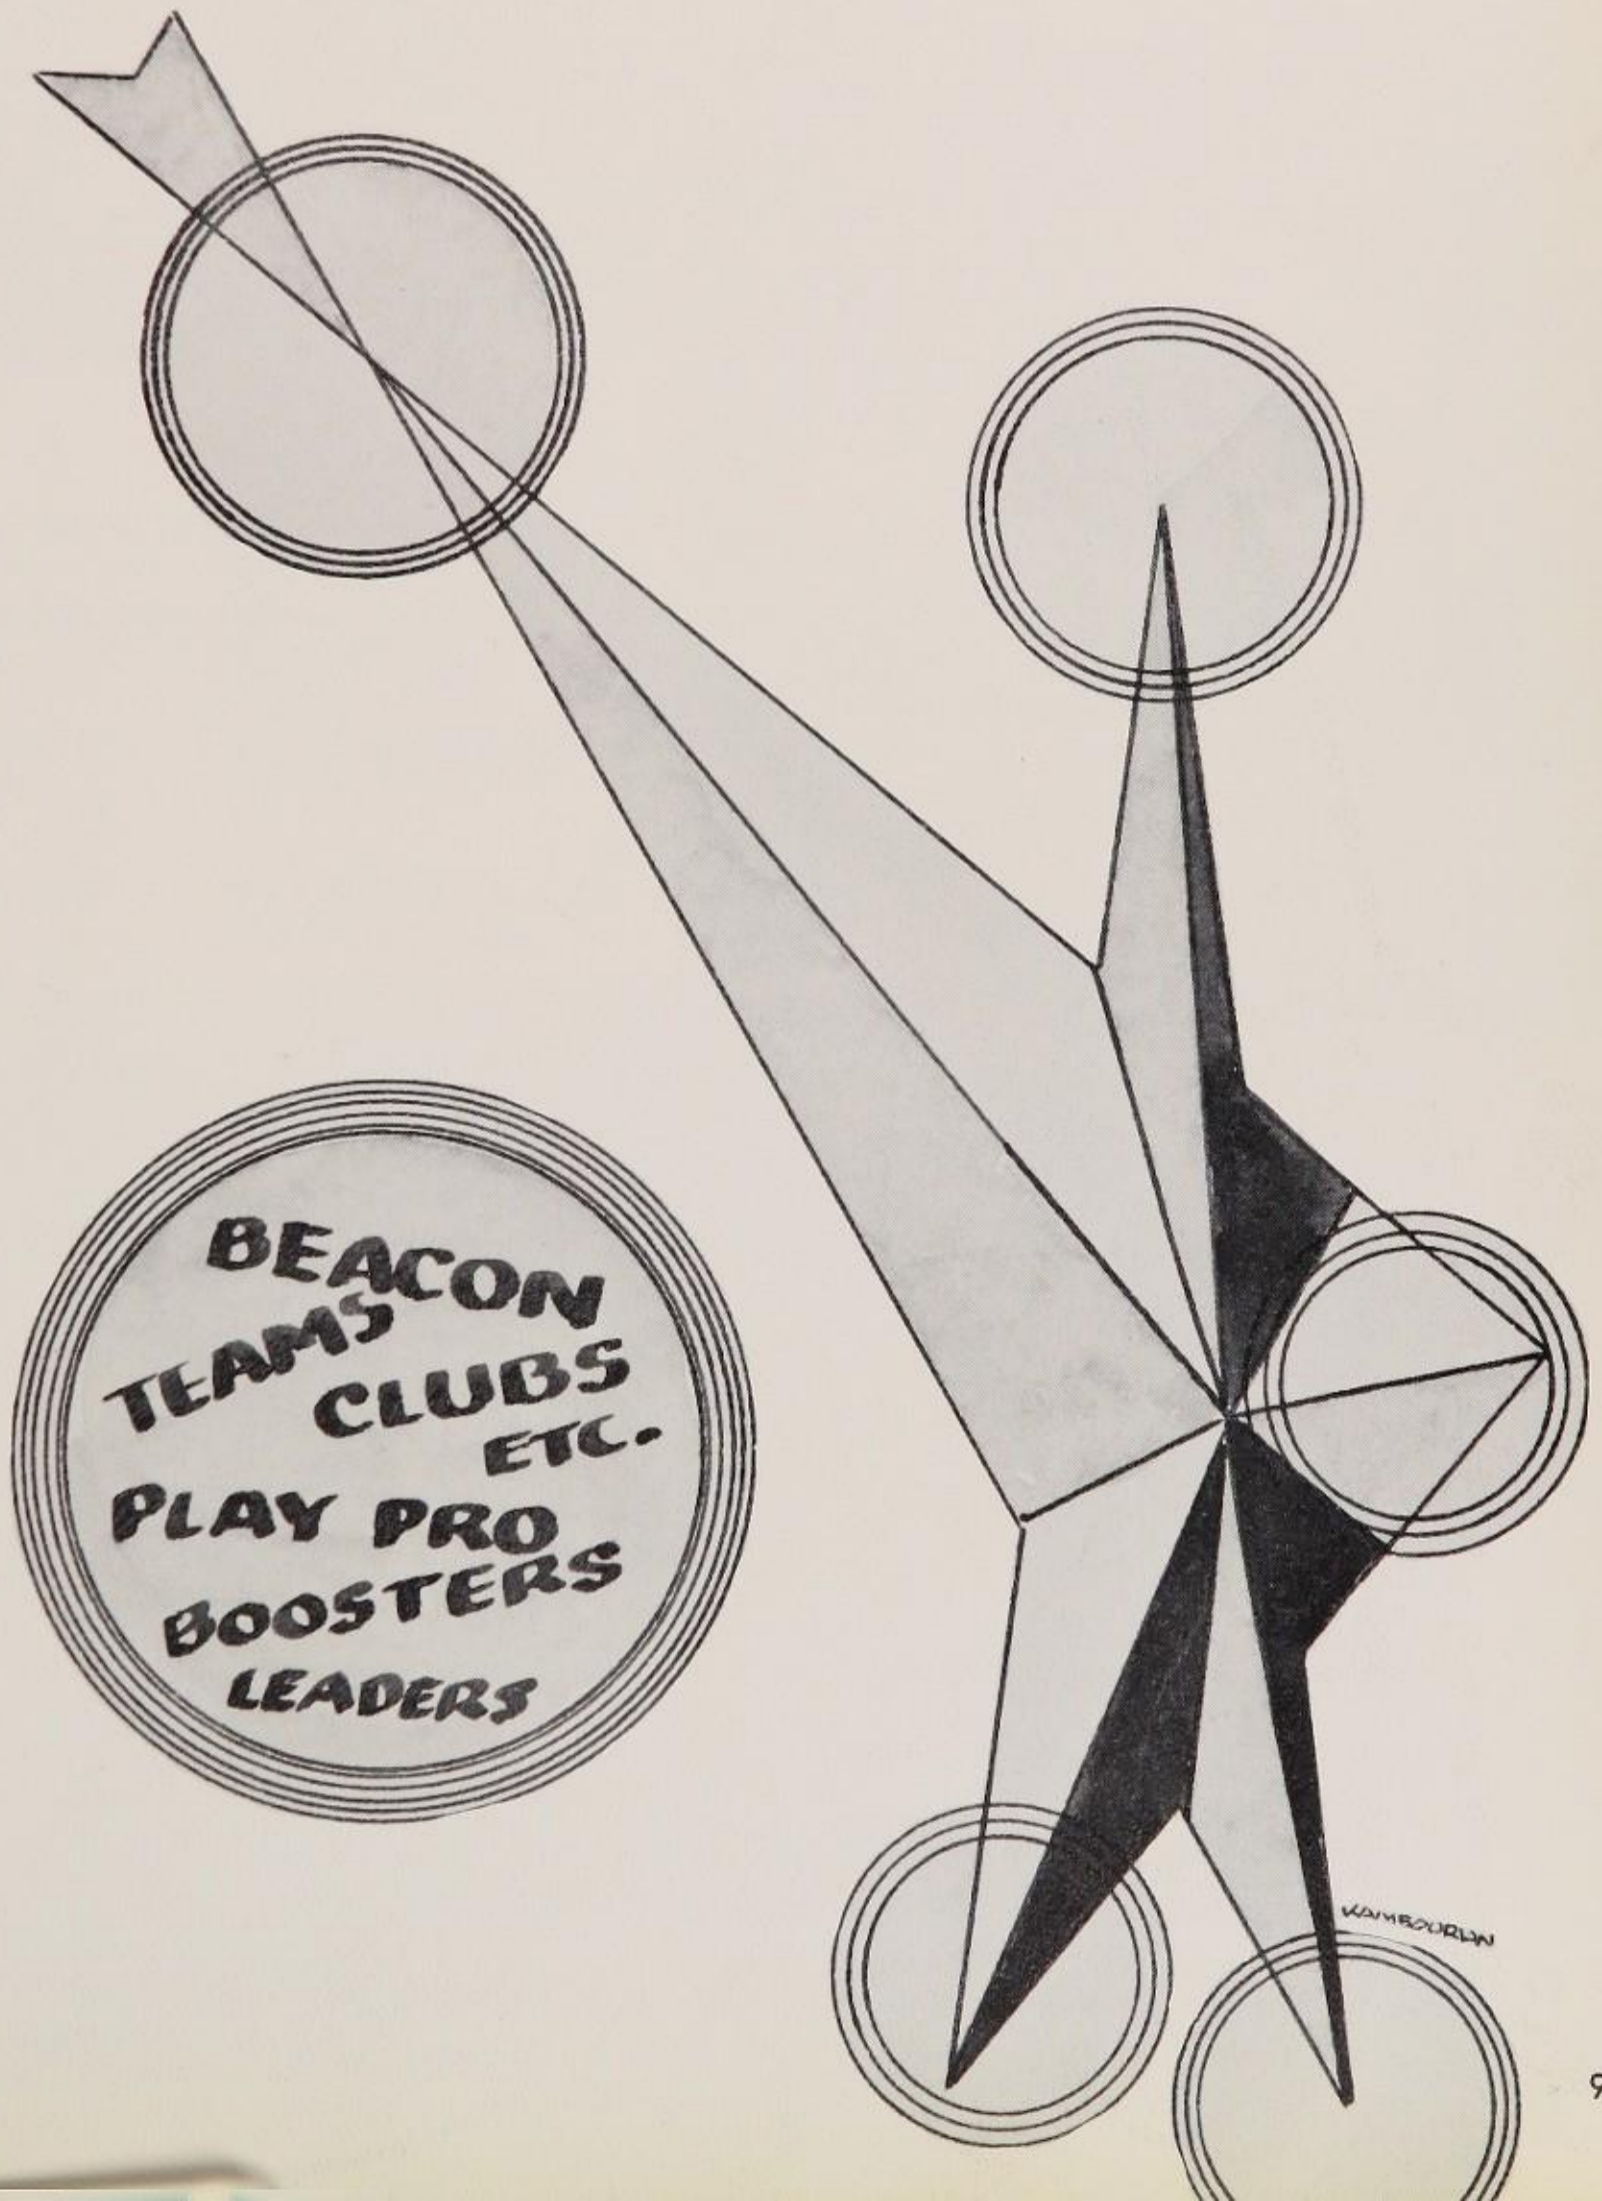

A senior's life is a snap. . .
A final loaf 'fore the end
Of high school adolescence
Of growing and experiencing
Quirks and jerks of conscience
Somebody should have told us
That college is tough
That a senior's life is not a snap
Not in '58 . . .

What, no worries? Who said?
Teachers wanted "mature efforts"
Colleges wanted "superior grades"
Employers wanted "dependable personnel"
Ma and Pa wanted "reflected glory—naches!"
We wanted "out!"

A senior's life is waiting
Waiting . . . impatiently . . . and hopefully
For standing in the class . . .
For acceptances from colleges . . .
For jewelry to symbolize (hope of) graduation
For hats and buttons and bids
To Prom—if only he would ask us . . .
For Forester . . . and our photos
And Regents grades—Oh! those awful exams!!!!
And, at last—graduation!
Now, an ALUMNUS or ALUMNA, I
Pht! Who said a senior's life was tough?
'Twas a snap!

Booters Have Fair Season

Despite the presence of one of the most balanced forward lines in the league, the 1957 edition of the Forest Hills soccer team finished in a disappointing tie for fourth place with Newtown.

Actually the rangers had a fine 5-3-1 league record, 7-3-1 overall, but the return to championship form of the Grover Cleveland Booters and the emergence of Bryant and Bayside as soccer powers proved too much for the Tri-Color to overtake.

The mainstays of Coach Ray Doyle's aggregation were Capt. Carlos Forero, a three year veteran who was hampered with injuries this season, Ike Sofaer, who was second in team scoring, Carlos Soares, a sophomore who led the team in goals scored with nine and Stan Kent, a junior from Israel who next year will compete in his fourth year of varsity play.

Jon Greene and Mike Mielnicki shared the goaltending job while Claude Gudermith, Okyay Ustin, Bruce Kallenberg, Frank Urbina, Donny Fox, and Larry Posner completed the array.

Bowlers Place Second in Queens

For the second straight year, the Forest Hills Keglers, after battling the pinmen of Bayside through most of the season for first place, ran into some unexpected difficulty at season's end and had to settle for second place in North Queens.

The "unexpected difficulty" was the lightly regarded Flushing Red Devils who upset the Tri-Color in their last match and thus prevented them from gaining a first place tie and a possible city playoff berth.

Overall, though, it was a good year for Coach Nick Spata's boys. Led by Captain Richie Sommerman, they compiled an 8-4 record. Sommerman, Igor Mena, Mike Calabrese, and Steve Weiss were the four mainstays of the team.

Fencers Relinquish Trophy

Unlike last year, when the Ranger team of Gene Glazer, Gil Eisner, and Bill Kao swept through the Tri-State Fencing Championships and thus won the prized Costello Trophy, this year's squad proved no match for some of the city's better foilsmen.

Captain Dan Fife, Co-Captain Steve Simpson and Allan Lichstrahl were the mainstays of the team, and all three gave commendable performances, but the team lost handily to Lincoln, Boys, Wingate, and Long Island City. The lone bright spot of the season was a tie with Eastern District High School.

basketball

For the third straight year, the Forest Hills basketball team finished atop the North Queens loop. The Rangers compiled a 13-1 league record and recorded a 17-2 overall slate.

In the City Playoffs, held at Madison Square Garden, the Tri-Color defeated Curtis High School of Staten Island 59-47 in an opening round game. In their next game, a quarter-final match against Boys High, the Rangers put on one of the finest exhibitions of schoolboy basketball ever seen in the Garden. Unfortunately so did Boys, and in the most exciting game of the tournament, the Rangers lost in the waning moments of the game 73-66.

NORTH QUEENS CHAMPS, '56, '57, '58 Cagers Reach Quarter Finals '57, '58 in Play-Offs at Garden

Overall, the season was one of the most successful in Forest Hills history, the third straight such season that Coach Ed Conlan has enjoyed.

This year's team was sparked by the outstanding play of seniors Fred Edelman, Stu Schachter and Mike Weiss. Edelman, who finished out a three year varsity career, was a consistent 15 point scorer and ace rebounder all year. Schachter, who was the Rangers' play-maker for the past two years, finished the season with a 12 point average. He was a standout with his setting up of plays and numerous assists. Weiss, top scorer this year and last, finished the year with an 18 point average and wound up his career as top scorer in Ranger history.

In addition to these three, backcourtman Norm Geller and forward Murray Riskin both had fine seasons as did frontline reserves Spenny Kent and Richie Schultz.

Steve Himmelstein, Lenny Schneidman, Red Freundlich, Lenny Schapiro and Marty Banner also saw action.

Swimmers Finish in Third Place

Coach Vic Mare's mermen had a fine season finishing third behind Jackson and Bayside while compiling a 6-2 ledger.

The Rangers started the season in fine style by routing Cleveland and Lane, but then ran into a bit of rough water as they were defeated by a very strong Jackson and Bayside array. However, the Tri-Color quickly returned to winning form and decisively defeated the mermen of Jamaica, Far Rockaway, John Adams, and Richmond Hill.

Steve Edelson in the 200 yard freestyle, Fred Magdoff in the 100 yard freestyle, Richie Royce in the 50 yard freestyle and Don Gold in the diving event were consistent winners for the Rangers. Others who had a fine year were Jeff Metzner, Jeff Litt, Roger Berent, Alan Jacobs, Jeff London, Pete Goldman, Bob Follett, Russell Black, Richie Weinstein, Gerry Kaufman, Taylor Loop, James Wightman, Leonard Winter and Steve Kisley.

The Forest Hills track team began the 1957-58 season under the auspices of a new coach, John Benzing, who took over an almost all-veteran array from former coach Jerry Pannell.

In the Cross-Country runs, held in the fall, the Rangers were somewhat hampered by a combination of the flu and bad weather. However, Don Small and Larry Siegal both ran the tough 2½ mile Van Cortlandt Park course in under 15 minutes.

The regular indoor and outdoor seasons proved to be more successful for the Tri-Color as Mike Goldberger, Stu Kurtz, Ira Mintzner, Myron Nack, Larry Astor, Ben Kupersmith, Bob Billick, Richie Zimmerman, Bob Weingard, Chuch Axelrod and Steve Salup all performed well. Salup, incidentally, set a new F.H. record for the 60 yard dash and the 440.

Netmen Attempt to Re-Capture Title

Still annoyed by their 1957 loss to Jamaica which snapped a streak of 34 straight wins, the Forest Hills tennis team began the 1958 campaign with but one objective—to recapture their coveted City Championship, which they had won in 1954, 1955 and 1956.

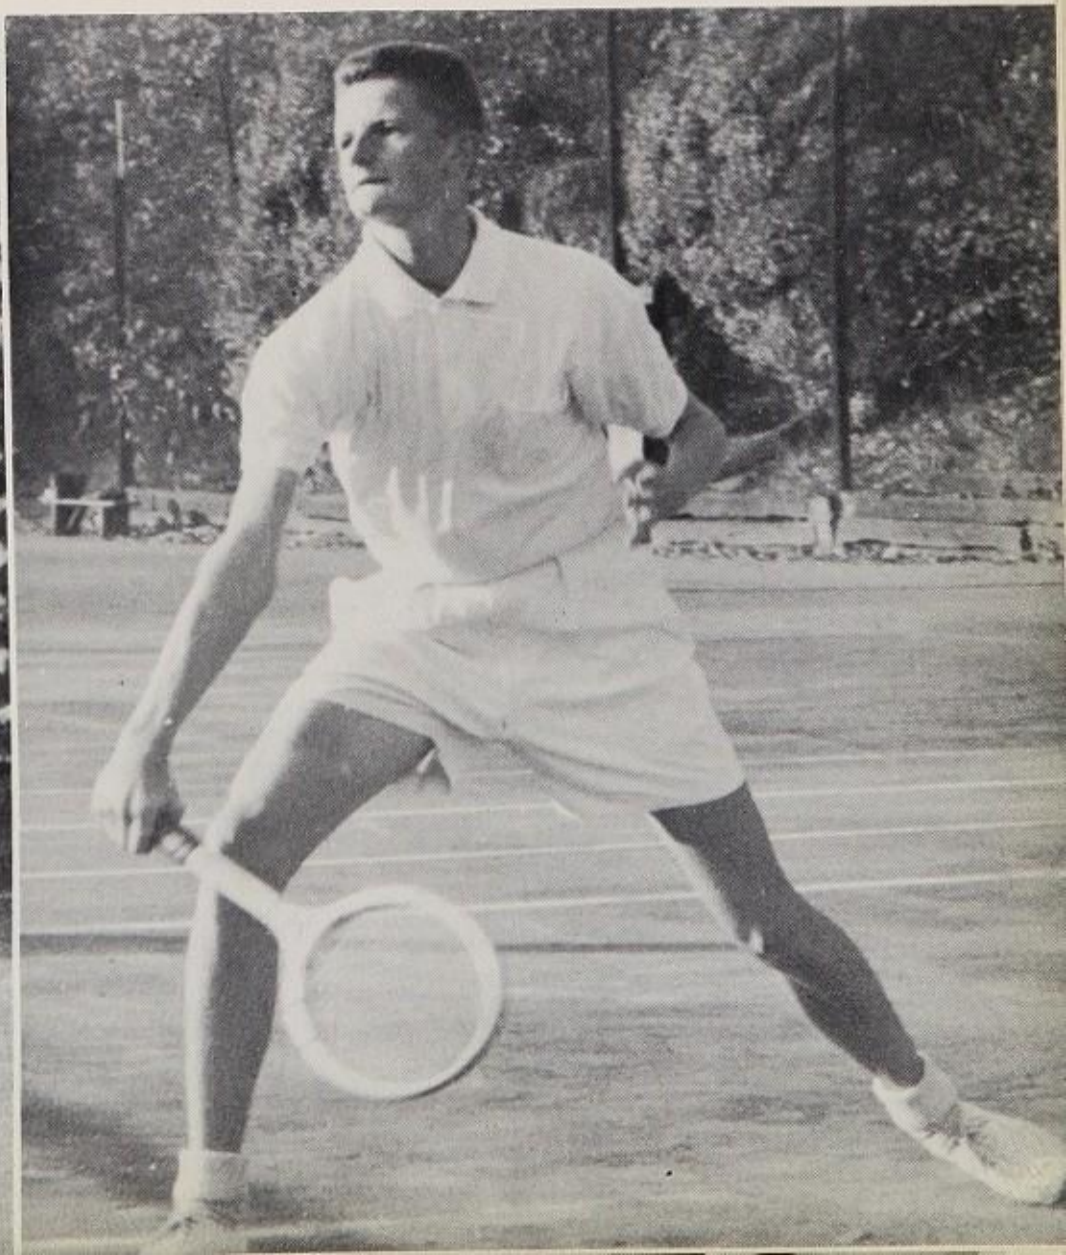

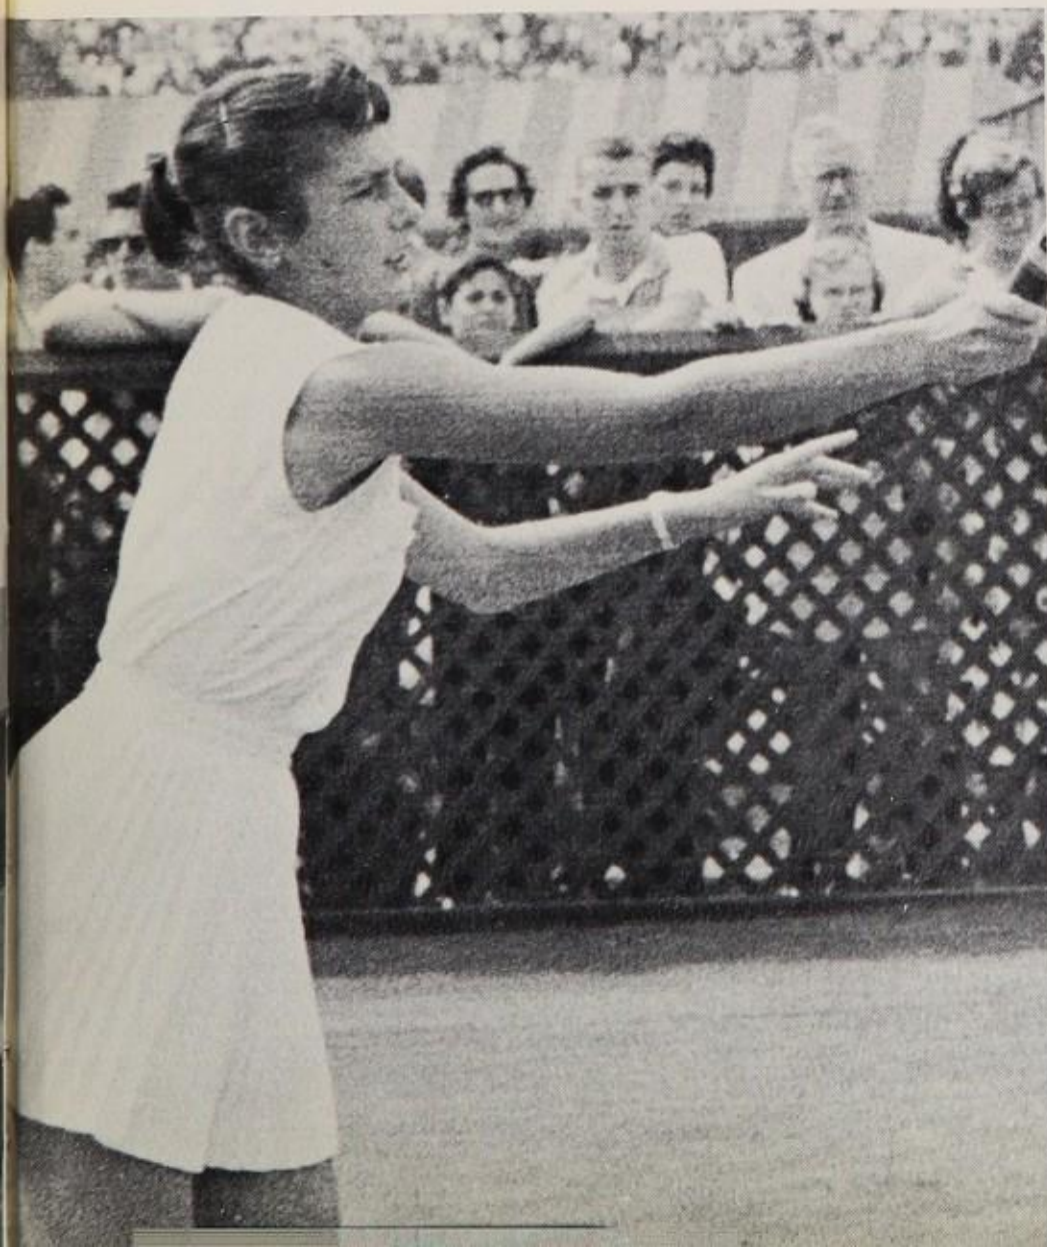

Captain Billy Hansel, one of the high ranking Juniors in the East, was the number one man for the Rangers. In the fall, Billy captured his third straight Max Jacobs Tournament. This year, however, he went through the whole tournament without the loss of a set.

Others who played well for Coach Selig Bernstein were Bob Kornreich, Mike Siegel, Jerry Cooke, and Ted Schuker.

In addition to Hansel, Hillites were able to boast about another high ranking player—G.O. Secretary Bonnie Mencher. Bonnie had a fine year, competing in several women's tournaments all over the country and many people feel that she is ready to make a fine showing in the forthcoming Nationals at the West Side Tennis Club.

Wallmen Try for Another Title

Revamped Wallmen Try For Title

Unlike last year when the Rangers' "Top Notch Trio" swept through most of their matches, the wallmen of 1958 began their season without an established veteran on the club.

Coach Joseph Tuzza was hard-pressed for players when he issued the call for all candidates, last March. However, he did come up with some talent, namely Eddie Berliner, Marty Schneiderman, Lenny Horowitz, Jonas Kovar, and Marty Kugler.

Together, these boys made a fine showing for themselves.

Golfers Still Trying

Linksmen Point for Commodores

As in previous years, the Forest Hill Golf team began the season knowing that in order to win that elusive first league championship, they would have to outshoot the linksmen of Bayside.

Although handicapped by the fact that all six members of last year's team had graduated, Coach Joseph Herschel seemed optimistic when he saw the form displayed by several candidates in an Easter Week tournament.

The boys who impressed during the intramural tournament and who went on to make the team were Arthur Lothstein, Richard Bluestine, Bob Anderman, and Jon Greene.

Returning Letterman Boost

Baseball Hopes

The Forest Hills baseball team began the 1958 season with high hopes for a successful campaign. Beginning their first year under the tutelage of Coach Chet Guzik, the Rangers pinned their high hopes on the return of many veterans.

Among these veterans were infielders Mike Weiss, Larry Rosen, Marv Haberman, and Howie Mah, and outfielders Steve Haber and Myron Blatt. The battery combination of Mike Trachter and Pete Rosen was also a veteran array. Newcomer Pete Rosenblatt was expected to add depth to the Tri-Color mound corps.

thinking . . . with a backward look leafing through the pages of a memory book re-living all the things one learns in four years, while a cigarette burns . . .
the ashes are reminiscent of by-gone days
of years filled with school customs and ways.
as the smoke ascends so do the years
the troubles, worries, and the silent fears and someday we may know the bliss of other years, just like this.

McSenior

Scene I. Outskirts of Forest Hills High School

First Senior— When shall we three meet again
In college, office or in vain?

Second Senior— When the hurly burly's done
When the battle's lost and won.

Third Senior— That will be ere the start of Fall.

First Senior— Where the place?

Second Senior— Upon the college campus.

Third Senior— There to meet with Success.

All— Fair is foul and foul is fair.
Our future hovers through the air.

Scene II. Forest Hills High School Grounds

Senior I— Listen hard, for ye shall profit from our mistakes.
(To a Sophomore) Do not move, rogue. But stay ye grounds.
The Thane of Forest Hills doth speak.

Thane— We hath happily received the news of our success.
Our last days have come. Hark! We must leave.
And now, we crown thee, "Future Senior"
And hasten to recall our steps. (Pause.)
We had done the deed, three years past
And entered these walls of green.
We screwed our courage to the sticking place
And said we would not fail.

Senior II— Lords Meade and Harrigan met our visit.
How was't that every noise appalled them?

Senior III— Lord Meade hath bid me speak with him at nine.

Sophomore— When classes doth begin at half past ten?

Senior III— To finish at thirty-three past four.

Senior II— We were an assemblage every day
Our coats thrown to the lockers down below.

Senior III— We cursed them at the heels, and had a purpose
To be first on line and leave the building.

Senior II— We dared do all that become a Soph
Who dares do more is none.

Senior III— The elevator door was open. A pass we hath not;
The thrill overcame us; our destination was shot.

Senior II— We knew not and saw not, the shows of great renown.

Senior III— But we were stars in our own right—
Collecting cans for Thankful ones,
More than others hath dare do.

Senior II— And then, King Regents hath approached
And said with fiery spirit,
"If it were done, when it were done
Then twere well it were done quickly."

Senior III— And thus, our answers to Biology were short.

Senior II— "If we should fail," we thought.

Senior III— Oh, horror, horror, horror.

All— Double, double, toil and trouble
Bio change and Math doth bubble.

Thane (to Soph)— Sophomore, thou art and Junior, soon;
And shalt be what thou art promised.
But heed my words and listen hard,
As my Junior year is reminisced. (Sophomore bows.)
The forbidden staircase, we feared less
We climbed it when not in need.

Sophomore— What hour did ye enter now?
Senior II— At nine, at three departed fast.
And now, the lunchroom doth appear
Its smell hath moved towards our noses.

Senior III— But nothing became us like the leaving it.
Senior II— The style was set. The stores invited us.
On our backs we threw crew necks
And belted backs of Ivy League.
Our feet hath walked in white
As bucks and sneakers were at Height.

Thane— Thus, our memories hath left us; our lockers we did lock.
The numbers hath not changed; the combinations stuck.

Senior II— "Throw physics to the dogs," we meowed.
As we ministered our minds with Math anon.

Senior III— Hence, we called on the seraph, Barrons
The little spirit who saw us through our roughest griefs.

Senior II— Summer came and summer went; as Seniors we were hailed.
Sophomore— Then, thou hast it now—Sophomore, Junior, Senior, all.
Thane— To be thus was nothing, but to be safely thus.
Our fears turned towards the air and Russia's flight
Which hath found heaven to prove its might.

Senior II— Our castle was surprised. Our green rooms slavishly pinkened.
Thane— There was the smell of paint, the sight of it;
All the perfumes and stain-removers could not take it away.

Senior II— To Staircase 6, I. Our separated paths shall keep us both the cleaner. Where we are, there's painters in the aisles.

Senior III— For exercise, females ran, through corridor and hall.
Finally to the lockers, up to gym, to play ball.

Thane— Then they saw the heavens as troubled with man's act,
Threaten these girls' lockers: a skirt, a shoe,
What have you?

Senior III— We lacked the season of all natures, sleep.
We were yet but young in deed,
To be in school at 8:00 and leave at noon-time's speed.

Thane— And now . . . Away and mock the time with fairest show.
Our Senior year is over and we must go.
Come what, come may
Time and the hour runs through the roughest day.
(Flourish. Exeunt.)

MEMORIES

The teachers, the students, the books and the test
The good kids, the bright kids, the dumb kids

The scolding, the laughter, the sadness, the glee
The passing, the failing, the last forlorn plea.
The forty minute periods for the hour long tests
The fighting for marks. Would 97 be best?

'39, '40, those historical years
 The copyright date our history book bears.
 Amscos and Barrons, never to be without
 A Forest Hills tradition, that's no doubt.
 The shows and elections, the teams and the clubs
 The lunchroom, the gyms, the marshals, the subs.

We also had the man who came to dinner . . .

Columbus Day Parade

Marshall, Huh!

Losing a program card, caught without a pass
Mr. Lapp escorting us to our next class.
A token a day for the forgetful Hillite
The familiar remark of "Give me a bite."
The tuna fish sandwich eaten five days a week
Breaking a plate; the ever faithful milk leak.

New Programs . . . but not for us

The Regents, the marks, the change from each class
 The dances that yielded to each lad and lass.
 The noise between classes, the silence ensuing
 The fire drill bells that said, "Stop what you're doing."
 The special classes, societies, credits and awards
 The scholarships, the grants, the College Boards.

Flagpole Reunion

D'ja know we have fluorescents in the tower now?

The "last minute cramming," the sad and happy results

The excuses for errors that weren't your fault.

Dr. Ryan, the counsellors, the chairmen, the deans

The officers, the clerks, the forbiddance of jeans.

The faculty that kept the F.H. heart-a-beating

The spirit that made each day a joyful meeting.

The Education Loan Plan

A low-cost, pay-as-you-go plan for financing tuition and all other educational costs

Will your tuition bill always come at the "wrong" time when there are a dozen or more other bills competing for your bank balance? Meeting your son's or daughter's tuition costs quarterly or semi-annually is not always easy or convenient.

That is why Manufacturers Trust Company, through its Education Loan Plan, offers a student's family the opportunity to pay tuition costs (Private Schools, Preparatory, Vocational or other Specialized Schools, Colleges or Universities) on a pay-as-you-go basis.

You can now arrange for a Personal Loan which will permit you to pay for a full year's tuition in cash, and re-pay the loan in 12 convenient monthly installments.

If you have savings, keep them. Once used, the chances are you'll never put the money back. There'll always be some good reason for spending it. Your only cost is $4.25 per $100, including life insurance.

The life insurance feature is an important consideration because it means that if anything should happen to you, the borrower — a student's father, for example — the insurance would cover the unpaid balance of the loan.

You are cordially invited to apply for an Education Loan at any one of our more than 100 conveniently located offices throughout Greater New York. Look in the telephone book for addresses, or call HAnover 2-1100.
